

Create an e shopping app using OOP practices where -

- Customer can create new account with email, password.
- Sellers can create new account, publish products to sell.
- Customers can see all products and place order.
- If an order is placed monitor the stock, don't show stock out products.